

General Education Tables for Direct Employment Programs

General Education Requirements for AAS Degrees for Direct Employment and for the AAS-AGS Degree	Credits (Minimum)
ART The AAS Art requirement is usually met by an ART or LIT class. See program checklists for details.	3
COMMUNICATION The AAS Communication requirement is usually met by taking one of the following pairs: OAP 151 & OAP 152 OR WRT 101 & WRT 102. See program checklists for details.	6
COMPUTER AND INFORMATION LITERACY (OPTIONAL) Completion of certain degree programs automatically fulfills this requirement. Otherwise, choose either CSA 100, CIS 100, CSA 120, or OAP 111. See program checklists for details.	0
ANALYSIS & CRITICAL THINKING At least one credit of the AAS Critical Thinking requirement must be fulfilled with a math course numbered above 100. The other credits may be fulfilled by one AGECEC lab science course from the following prefixes: ANR, AST, BIO, CHM, GEO, GLG, PHY; or take REA 112. See program checklists for details.	6
HUMANITIES OR SOCIAL SCIENCE Most students fulfill this requirement with HIS 122. See program checklists for details.	3
C AND G SPECIAL REQUIREMENT HIS 122 meets the Special Requirement for both Cultural Awareness (C) and Global Diversity (G).

General Education Requirements for Certificates for Direct Employment (CRTs)	Credits (Minimum)
COMMUNICATION The CRT-OAP requires OAP 151. See program checklists for details.	3
COMPUTER AND INFORMATION LITERACY (OPTIONAL) Some certificates require CSA 100. Otherwise, choose CIS 100, CSA 120, or OAP 111. See program checklists for details.	0
ANALYSIS & CRITICAL THINKING Some programs require MAT 122 or a math course numbered above 100. See program checklists for details.	3